It is 1959, and after a night of accolades at the Academy Awards Show, you will attend the star-studded after-party hosted by the one and only Marilyn Monroe. While socializing and schmoozing with the 1950's Hollywood elite, careers will be made, secrets will be revealed and scandals will be broken and a homicide will happen.

With a VIP victim and the celebrities all suspect, you will be called upon to find the criminal by cracking this red carpet caper.

As the night unfolds, so will a web of lies and scandals intricately woven to point you to a killer. It is up to you to uncover the clues or the culprit will remain concealed.

*Come walk the blood
red carpet and enjoy a
